HOLY CROSS SOCIETY STAGES CELEBRATION

Affair That Started on Friday Ends With Sunday Services

The fifteenth annual celebration of the Holy Cross Society of Easton, sponsored by the members of the St. Anthony's church, Lehigh street, ended Sunday night with a band concert by Valle's Band of New York. The concert was given in the society's park at Cedarville on the South Side.

Special services were held in St. Anthony's church on Sunday morning. In the afternoon between 2 and 6 o'clock the Valle band paraded and played in various sections of the city and ended up at the park in the evening.

The celebration started on Friday night with a band concert and a display of fireworks. The program was repeated on Saturday evening and a monster pyrotechnic display which started at midnight ended the second day's celebration.

The following program was given at the band concert last evening: Overture—"Semiramide," Rossini; selection, "Mephistophele," Boito; "Cavalleria Rurticana," Mascagni; "Travitta," Verdi; act 1—"Andrea Chernier," Giordano; "Souvenir Dell'opera," Valle; polka, "Good Bye to Easton," Valle.

The committee which had charge of the affair consisted of the following: Ciro Buono, president; Gaetano Piscitello, vice president; Alphonse Rizzo, secretary; James Regalbuto, treasurer; Joseph Fiore, trustee; Samuel Maglio, trustee.